

Rifle-Pistol Range, Short-Range Days (Weather permitting)

To accommodate handgun shooters who want to practice at distances less than 25 yards, the Chapter offers short-range time on the fifth Sunday of months that have them. On these Sundays, from noon to 5 p.m., the targets are set up downrange near the berm at the range 100-yard line and the firing line is delineated back 10 yards with tables. The shooting area is on gravel/dirt/grass, so plan accordingly (it is also not covered). All range procedures remain the same for the handling and use of firearms during short-range times. For more information, always check with the RO on duty.
