Officer/Director Reports

President's Report

Mark Gauntner reported:

- The Archery 201 class starts in the evening. There are 11 signed up for the early session, and 18 are signed up for the second session.
- The Archery 101 and 201 classes, as well as the Cub Run Archers gun show, provide substantial revenue to the Cub Run Archers club.
- An inventory of 3D targets needs to be completed. Volunteers offered to help.
- The updated 2026 Cub Run Archers application is available for download on the Cub Run Archers web site (<https://wp.arlingtonfairfax-iwla.org/cub-run-archers/>).

Vice-President's Report

Tom Miller reported:

- The "On the Clock" practice sessions have been started and are continuing. The sessions scheduled for January are 13 and 27. The sessions are from 6:30pm – 9:00pm.
- The scheduled dates for 2026 3D shoots are May 3, June 27, and August 9.

Treasurer's Report

Jim Kerrigan reported account balances for the end of December:

Field Archery	$ 14,882.71
Cub Run	$ 2,032.32
VBA Payable	$ 570.00

Cub Run Archers
Monthly Meeting, January 4, 2026

Total $ 17,485.03

Motion to accept the Treasurer's report was seconded and passed unanimously.

Secretary's Report

Justice Percell reported:

- There are 96 members on the 2025 roster, and 29 on the 2026 roster.
- The next Cub Run Archers meeting will be February 1, 2026, followed by the Chili Cookoff.

Director of Indoor Archery

Marvin Hicks reported:

- There has been an increase in indoor range activity. Some are bringing their own target butts.
- Target butts for the indoor range have been purchased, and will soon replace current butts.
- Current target butts on the indoor range are composed of a stack of 11 layers. Each layer costs approximately $110. Total cost is $1210.
- There is a calendar posted for the indoor range. Users should check the calendar and make additions or corrections as necessary.
- A cleaning crew comes in on Saturday mornings, and the range needs to be closed while they are working. However, the range will not be shut down for long, so the cleaning is not on the calendar.
- There is a continuing lack of payments for targets. A discussion was started on the possible use of Venmo for purchases of targets and other items. (Venmo is an American mobile payment service founded in 2009 and owned by PayPal since 2013.)

Director of Social Activities

- Linda Riemer thanked all who helped with the Christmas banquet.
- The Chili cookoff will follow the meeting on February 1. There are currently three entries, and more are welcome.

Cub Run Archers Monthly Meeting, January 4, 2026

Motion for the Cub Run Archers club to spend up to $250 to provide extra supplies and condiments for the Chili cookoff was made and seconded. The motion passed unanimously.

Director of Field Archery

Director of Field Archery Dick Riemer reported:

- The Archery 101 class will be on January 18, 2026.
- The Cub Run Archers Gun Show will be Saturday, March 28, from 9:00am to 1:00pm. The indoor range will be closed at 3:00pm on Friday, March 27 to allow for setup of the gun show.

Old Business

Mark Gauntner announced:

- Thanks to all who helped with the Christmas banquet decorations.
- Don Early is continuing to make upgrades to the security procedures on the Arlington-Fairfax IWLA property.
- Efforts are continuing to change the Cub Run Archers Bylaws.
- Arlington-Fairfax IWLA Building and Grounds committee has scheduled the front deck to be replaced in 2026.

New Business

Mark Gauntner commented:

Cub Run Archers
Monthly Meeting, January 4, 2026

→ Payments for services on the property using Venmo or other services are a good idea, but they need to be coordinated with the treasurer of Arlington-Fairfax IWLA Board of Directors.

→ Deer meat has been donated to the club from the Fairfax County Deer Management Program.

Motion for Cub Run Archers to spend up to $200 for deer processing for deer meat that has been donated to Cub Run Archers. The motion was seconded, and passed unanimously.

New Members

Elsy Moreno and Benjamin Baumgartner introduced themselves as new members.

Motion to accept Elsy Moreno and Benjamin Baumgartner as members of Cub Run Archers was seconded and passed unanimously.

VBA Representative

Paul Vogel gave the VBA report.

Member Concerns

Justice Percell started a discussion on three topics:

- Question of whether Cub Run Archers is a VBA club,
- Vandalism on the property,
- Improved safety procedures.

The meeting was adjourned at 2:30pm.
