13. Recreational Sports

Indoor and outdoor recreational sports activities are permitted, provided participants and organizers of recreational sports activities comply with the Guidelines for All Business Sectors and the sector-specific guidelines for recreational sports expressly incorporated by reference herein. Such guidance includes, but is not limited to, the following requirements:

a. Ten feet of physical distance must be maintained by all instructors, participants, and spectators, with the exception of incidental contact or contact between members of the same household. This applies during instruction and practice and during competitive events. Competition that involves close contact with other athletes must be avoided.

The total number of attendees (including both participants and spectators) of outdoor recreational sports cannot exceed the lesser of 50% of the occupancy load of the venue, if applicable, or 50 persons. For sports played on a field, attendees are limited to 50 persons per field. For outdoor youth recreational sports, spectators may not be present with the following exceptions: parents, guardians, and caretakers who are supervising children playing in the sports event, and other children in the parent's, guardian's or caretaker's care. Participants in outdoor youth recreational sports are not limited to 50% of the occupancy load of the venue or the 50 persons limit.

b. The total number of attendees for indoor recreational sports cannot exceed the lesser of 30% of the lowest occupancy load on the certificate of occupancy or 50 persons. For sports played on a field, attendees are limited to 50 persons per field.

c. For indoor recreational sports, spectators may not be present except parents, guardians, or caretakers who are supervising children.

Chapter closed March 25, 2020 due to health concerns caused by the global COVID-19 virus pandemic.

March 24, 2020- March E-Blast & posted on chapter website:

An Important Message from the President of our Chapter

At Arlington-Fairfax Chapter of IWLA.

From March 25, 2020, to April 23, 2020, all buildings are closed and “organized” outdoor activities are canceled to comply with Governor Northam’s executive order. Our Chapter grounds remain open. Officers, designated directors, and building managers or their representatives may go into buildings to perform maintenance and check on security along with accessing the field house to check on mail but should adhere to social distancing recommendations.
